MEDIA RELEASE

Indonesia and Trinidad And Tobago To Explore Opportunities For Energy Cooperation

TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO AND INDONESIA HAVE LAID THE FOUNDATION FOR POSSIBLE FUTURE COOPERATION IN ENERGY PROJECTS, as a result of a meeting between Energy Minister Kevin C. Ramnarine and Her Excellency Prianti Gagarin Djatmiko Singgih, Ambassador of the Republic of Indonesia to this country.

During their discussions yesterday (Monday 22 April, 2013) at the Ministry of Energy and Energy Affairs, Minister Ramnarine and Ambassador Singgih discussed several potential areas of cooperation to be explored. Her Excellency noted that Indonesia is interested in tapping into Trinidad and Tobago's expertise in several areas in the gas industry, namely gas distribution networks, and developing gas export mechanisms. There is also the potential for cooperation on Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency projects.

Minister Ramnarine said that he welcomed the confidence shown in Trinidad and Tobago's energy sector and the local expertise developed over the years, and is looking forward to advancing discussions between T&T's National Energy Corporation (NEC) and its Indonesian counterparts.
