MINISTER YOUNG MEETS WITH ATLANTIC COUNCIL

In keeping with the commitment to work on the future of Trinidad and Tobago's energy sector from all fronts, The Honourable Minister of Energy and Energy Industries and Minister in the Office of the Prime Minister, Stuart R. Young MP met with members of the Atlantic Council to discuss the energy security and policy of Trinidad and Tobago.

The Atlantic Council promotes constructive leadership and engagement in international affairs based on the Atlantic Community's central role in meeting global challenges. The Council provides an essential forum for navigating the dramatic economic and political changes defining the twenty-first century by informing and galvanizing its uniquely influential network of global leaders.

On September 15th 2022, the Minister of Energy and Energy Industries accompanied the Honourable Prime Minister Dr. Keith Rowley to discuss matters of energy security with VP Kamala Harris. Discussions surrounded initiatives which would benefit the region.

In delivering his keynote address at the Trinidad and Tobago Energy Conference 2023, the Honourable Prime Minister Dr. Keith Rowley stated that there is a proposed CARICOM /US team to be chaired by Vice-President Kamala Harris and co-chaired by a CARICOM leader (the Honourable Prime Minister of Trinidad and Tobago Dr. Keith Rowley) where the main focus of the assignment is to establish and develop sustainable energy security for the Caribbean region.

With over 100 years of oil and gas knowledge and experience Trinidad and Tobago remains well positioned in global conversations.
